[Redacted]

Thank you so very much for your nice letter. I am delighted that you have successfully arrived in the United States and that your family is with you. I know the high regard in which the members of SCAG held you, so I am fully understanding of their sponsoring you here in the United States. I also am sure that with your exceptional ability, which you showed [Redacted] you will very soon become a major contributor to the betterment of this country as you did of Vietnam.

Thank you for writing to me. I still retain the [Redacted] which you so kindly awarded me.

Ambassador Robert Komer's address is as follows: [Redacted] Alexandria, Virginia.

Sincerely,

/s/ W. E. Colby
